

AMGUEDDFA CEREDIGION MUSEUM

AGRICULTURE

Name.....School.....

What sources of power were used by farmers in Victorian Times?

oxen	horses	people	water power	wind power
electricity	gas	petrol engines	tractors	solar power

How was most of the work done on the farm in Victorian times?

Children did most of the work	One person did most of the work	Slaves were made to do most of the work	Lots of people worked together	Rich people paid poor people to do the work
-------------------------------	---------------------------------	---	--------------------------------	---

In modern times, how is most of the work done on the farm?

Children do most of the work	One person does most of the work	Slaves are made to do most of the work	Lots of people work together	Rich people pay poor people to do the work
------------------------------	----------------------------------	--	------------------------------	--

What jobs did a farmer do in Victorian times?

Feeding horses	Cleaning the stables	Learning how to use a computer	Sewing seeds	Weeding the fields
harvesting	Buying diesel for the tractor	Looking after sheep and pigs	Taking sheep to market in a van	Mending fences
ploughing	Driving round the farm on a motorbike	Mending tools	Grinding corn to make flour	Celebrating the end of harvest

Can you find the tools in the display to do these jobs?

plough	Seed sower	Weeding tools	scythe	Fencing tools
--------	------------	---------------	--------	---------------

What materials are most of the objects in the agricultural display made of?

wood	iron	plastic	brass	clay	straw
------	------	---------	-------	------	-------

Find a photograph of lots of people holding simple, cheap tools.

What do you think is better?

a) Lots of people working hard with simple, cheap tools

OR

b) One person doing the same job with a complicated, expensive machine.

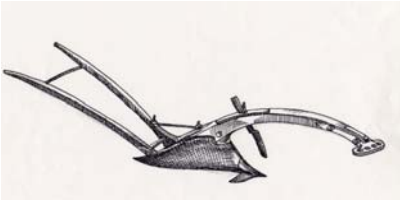

Give your reasons.

.....

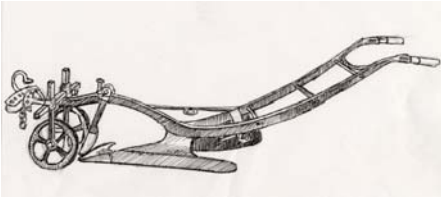

.....

.....

FIND THESE IN THE DISPLAY

No 1 - wooden plough

No 2 - metal plough

No 3 - wooden harrow

No 4 - metal harrow

What are the advantages of making things of metal rather than wood?

Tick the correct boxes.

Wood goes rotten	Wood is cheap	Wood can be repaired easily	Wood can be found anywhere	Wood is strong
Metal is more expensive	Metal is stronger	Metal breaks easily	Metal goes rusty	Some metal objects have to be made in factories